

11B Olney Street, Slaithwaite

This substantial 5 bedroom residence is one of four houses within the imposing former Victorian Baptist Chapel building which was converted 2004/5 to a particularly high standard. The spacious accommodation is laid out over 3 levels and provides ample space for a growing family. It is nicely presented throughout and ready for the next owner to walk straight in and enjoy it. There is a sizeable garden at the rear where you can sit out, entertain, and take full advantage of a southerly aspect and far-reaching views across the valley and up towards Marsden. There is also off-street parking for 2 cars. This is also an excellent location for access to the train station, regular bus service, and access to a good range of village shops, bars, cafes and restaurants.
